

THE EPISCOPAL DIOCESES OF
Western New York
& Northwestern
Pennsylvania

In early December, we are all invited to join Bishop Sean, Canon Ruth Woodliff-Stanley, and other diocesan leaders for regional conversations called Emmaus Gatherings. The gatherings will take place on:

December 4, 6:30 p.m. at St. Luke's, Jamestown, NY
December 5, 6:30 p.m. at St. Mark's, Erie, PA
December 7, 10 a.m. at St. John's, Franklin, PA
December 7, 6:30 p.m. at St. James, Batavia, NY
December 8, 3:30 p.m. at the Diocesan Center, Tonawanda, NY

In these meetings, we will be able to offer our ideas about how to build upon our shared experiences, hopes and gifts to strengthen and expand our reach for the gospel in our region. After these gatherings, leaders from both dioceses will work on developing a plan to direct our available resources—including funding and training—toward the initiatives that seem to have the greatest amount of interest and energy behind them.

The more voices we hear and the more experiences we share, the more successful we will be in discerning where the Holy Spirit is leading our dioceses. Please come to Emmaus!
